Intellectual property

Every element which features in the FizzUp online service is protected by French law on copyright and trademark, in the conditions provided for in the 'Intellectual Property' article of the Terms of Service http://app.fizzup.com/general_terms.pdf.

Data protection

The automatic processing of personal data carried out through the FizzUp online service is subject to administrative processes laid down by law, under the number 1531103.

Fysiki agrees to protect the private life of its users in compliance with regulations in force and, in particular, with the modified 'Data Protection' Act No 78-17 of 6 January 1978 in accordance with the company's Privacy Policy http://app.fizzup.com/privacy_policy.pdf.

The purpose of data processing is to allow:

- the smooth running of the service with respect to its functions;
- Operations related to client management, market research and development of statistics concerning traffic on the FizzUp online service.

This data is intended exclusively for Fysiki and its commercial partners.

They may request to be taken off the list of email addresses used for email market research, by sending a message, followed by a confirmation of receipt, to the following address: support@fizzup.com.

Also, if a user who has been invited to join the site by a private contact, does not want to pursue, they reserve the option to notify Fysiki that they do not wish to receive reminders. Similarly, if they do not wish to receive commercial advertising or any other type of promotions or marketing, they may inform their refusal by message to the following email address: support@fizzup.com, which will be followed by a confirmation of receipt from Fysiki.

Users are informed that they have the right to access and to amend personal data concerning them. In order to exercise this right, they may directly contact Fysiki at the following address: support@fizzup.com. They may also object to the processing of data, for legitimate motives.

The users are required to comply with the provisions of the Data Protection Act which are outlined below, the breach of which is punishable by criminal sanctions. In particular, concerning data of a personal nature which they may have access to, they must refrain from collecting, misusing and, generally from any act liable to violate any person's private life or reputation.

FizzUp is a community service, the user is solely responsible for the confidentiality of the information he or she publishes and communicates to other users.
